IMPORTANT INFORMATION (Retain for your records)

Welcome to another semester at Hudson County Community College! With HCCC's commitment to communicate important aspects of college life, you should take the time to read the information and seek answers to questions. You are expected to access the student portal.

HCCC communicates with students through the College Catalog, student handbook, student portal (www.hccc.edu/MyHudson), email, letters, phone calls, orientation, workshops, and individual counseling sessions. As a registering student, you are assuming responsibilities in adherence to College policy, procedures, and practices.

In processing this registration form, you have agreed to make payment in accordance with the tuition/fees payment policy that is in effect for the term(s) for which you have registered.

Students MAY have their registration cancelled for non-payment at any time after registration. Students retain full responsibility in tracking their enrollment status. Visit www.hccc.edu/my_hudson. Enter Liberty Link.

Only if you HAVE BEEN deregistered will you receive notification by mail and email stating so.

You should always seek answers to questions including issues related to ...

- Dropping out of the College (tuition/fees, grade, and financial aid/scholarship ramifications)
- Dropping a class (tuition/fees, grade, and financial aid/scholarship ramifications)
- Adding a class (tuition/fees, grade, and financial aid ramifications)
- Making only a partial payment on your tuition and fees (refer to deregistration for non-payment)
- Changing a major, program of study (financial aid, time to completion, loss of credit)
- Semester with low grades (academic progress requirements, financial aid/scholarship ramifications)
- Filing for graduation (completion requirements audit, participation in the commencement ceremonies)
- Transfer (articulation agreements with four-year colleges, ease of transfer)

You are responsible for remaining informed on the current schedule and academic calendar including:

- When classes begin and when they end
- Dates to add/drop classes without academic penalty
- Last day to drop classes without incurring any financial penalty and attaining full or partial refund
- Last day to administratively withdraw from classes and obtain a grade of "W" and to avoid an "F"
- When the College is closed and general operational hours.

Students should ensure that Hudson County Community College has their correct address and phone number. If you have not been receiving correspondence from the College, or have not received any phone calls, you should verify your directory information in the Admissions Office at 70 Sip Avenue.

You Have Mail — An e-mail address is assigned to all registered students. New students have it assigned within two weeks from the start of class. Go to www.hccc.edu/myhudson to begin using it. Students should review their messages frequently. For Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) on your e-mail, log onto www.hccc.edu/faq

On-line Registration: Students taking college level Math/English are provided access to on-line registration. Students can register, add/drop and pay for courses without having to come on campus. Access is provided through Liberty Link.
