Visit www.hccc.edu/HHMBrochure for a self-guided tour brochure including on-campus locations and www.hccc.edu/HispanicArtistArtCollection for the online gallery for the HCCC Foundation Art Collection featuring Hispanic and Hispanic American Artists.

Conference Opportunity

HCCC will be sponsoring the attendance of ten students to attend the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU) 34th Annual Conference which will be held VIRTUALLY on October 26 to October 28, 2020. This is an amazing opportunity to attend a special Student Track focused on career development, networking, and leadership skills. Through this opportunity, you will be connected to companies and organizations from across the country along with over 500 other college students!

Students who are interested in attending will be asked to fill out an application, which will be found on <https://involved.hccc.edu/> from Tuesday, September 15 to Monday, September 21. Complete details related to the conference will be in this application. Those chosen to attend the conference will be alerted on Tuesday, September 22.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

Make the Road New Jersey

6:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Make the Road New Jersey builds the power of immigrant, working-class & Latinx communities to achieve dignity and respect through community organizing, legal, policy innovation and transformative education. Join us and our guest speakers from the organization to hear about the top issues impacting Hispanic/Latinx NJ people and families and some recent victories, including the recent bill signed by Governor Phil Murphy which will allow hundreds of thousands of people in New Jersey to become licensed doctors, nurses, electricians, counselors, cosmetologists, and other professionals regardless of their immigration status.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1

Una Noche de Mariachi

6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Join us for an evening of Mariachi. Mariachi, as we know it today, is a style of music and a musical group performance that dates back to the 19th century in Mexico. Tune in to enjoy the intricate and beautiful sounds of local Mariachi, Mariachi Nuevo Mexico.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3

Tenement Museum Virtual Museum Tour:

Meet the Saez-Velez Family

1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

During this live, virtual, interactive experience, a Tenement Museum Educator will take us inside of one family's home and story. The Saez-Velez family is a Puerto Rican family who lived at 103 Orchard Street in New York City beginning in the 1950s. You will see how they built community at home, school, work, and in their neighborhood. Log onto involved.hccc.edu and search "Tenement Museum" to RSVP. Limited spots available.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8

Loteria

6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Documentary Screening and Discussion:

"Afro-Latino Travels with Kim Haas"

6:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Register to attend at: www.tinyurl.com/hhm20

From the new, groundbreaking PBS travel series, "Afro-Latino Travels with Kim Haas", which shines a light, honors, and celebrates the historical and cultural contributions of Latin America's African descendants. Host, Kim Haas, will lead an interactive discussion on various topics related to Afro-Latino culture and identity.

"We are introducing participants to Afro-Latinos and their profound legacy in the Americas through history, culture, cuisine, art, dance, music, environmental conservation, literature, sports, and festivals," says Haas. "Afro-Latino Travels is about Black joy, pride and resilience despite centuries of oppression and under-representation." The series and event will feature Afro-Latinos that will leave participants with pride, hope, and joy. This event is hosted by Continuing Education and the Office of Student Life and Leadership.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16

Training Opportunity: UndocuAlly Training

10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

The purpose of the UndocuAlly Training is for participants to understand the history of our undocumented communities, past and present legislation, and the lived realities and barriers our undocumented communities are fighting through with strength and resilience. This training is open to students, staff, and faculty.
