VDI Computers STEM Guide – For Faculty/Staff

These computers have the following technology:

Logging in

STEP 1:

Write your username in the "username" section without including @live.hccc.edu.

STEP 2:

Write your password in the "password" section and your desktop will display.

How to Switch from Windows to STEM Image

Please be aware that it is possible to switch from windows to STEM image or vice versa. The purpose of having both images (Windows and STEM) is so that you will be able to use the available programs.

STEP 1:

Right click in the left side of the computer to display the vertical bar as shown in the picture.

OneDrive Mapper

For non-student users after "logging in," the system will ask to introduce the password again. In this case, the user only needs to rewrite the password and you will be able to use the computer normally.

If you do not re-enter the password you won't be available to save in ONE DRIVE. Therefore, you will need to sign in again.

Automatic Logout

Please be aware that all VDI computers are pre-programmed to log you out after 15 minutes of inactivity.

Every time you "log in," the computer will display this message, click the "OK" button, and you will be able to use the computer.
