Night of Ideas

Friday, March 1

Villa Albertine's signature Night of Ideas is a free, open-to-all event taking place once a year, throughout one night of exhibitions, debates, panels, performances, music, and screenings. This special event aims to foster community discussions exploring the various aspects of living in a modern city. Jersey City's diverse and ever-changing landscape will inspire programs, lectures, art, and more.

Femme Digital

Tuesday, January 30 -

Thursday, March 29

Femme Digital is an exhibition celebrating the talents of contemporary female-identifying and non-binary artists creating animation, performance-based documentaries, and digital works of art. Dineen Hull Gallery proudly hosts works by multi-media creatives Anna Ehram, Deborah Jack, Vandana Jain, Donna Kessinger, Stevni.XYZ, LoVid and Tricia McLaughlin. Through the use of screens, these femmetastic artists bring the tech heat to the Dineen Hull Gallery.

What Happens in the Shadows by Fabricio Suarez at NHC

Tuesday, February 13 -

Thursday, May 31

Fabricio Suarez is an artist from Uruguay working in the NY/NJ area. He received his BFA in Fine Arts and Illustration from the School of Visual Arts. His current studio practice described as Abstract Baroque, consists of moody surrealist paintings, distorting compositions of traditional European portraits and landscapes with spiritual elements of American savagery. Where abstract brushstrokes acting as "characters" form a narrative in the landscape. A basic exploration of relationships between impulsive mark-making.

Words-Worth: Poetry Month

Thursday, April 11-

Friday, April 12

Words-Worth is a celebration for students during Poetry Month in April which inspires the craft and creativity of poetry as a form of expression. It's a multi-faceted, hands-on event, where students have the opportunity to participate in a variety of student-centered activities that foster a love for creative expression.
