Services for & Rights of School-Aged Homeless Youths Under McKinney-Vento

What is McKinney Vento?

The McKinney-Vento Education of Homeless Children and Youth Assistance Act is a federal law that ensures immediate enrollment and educational stability for homeless children and youth. It provides funding to States for the purpose of supporting programs that serve homeless students. This is ensured by the District's Homeless Education Liaison, who also ensures no student is segregated or singled out due to their status.

Who is a Homeless Student?

A "homeless" student is defined as; a child or youth lacking a fixed, permanent, and adequate nighttime residence.

Your Child(ren)'s Homeless Liaison

If your child is an eligible McKinney-Vento student they will be assigned a homeless liaison to help with the following:

- Assist homeless students in meeting academic goals
- Are available during the regular business day to answer any questions parents, students or school staff may have.
- They can help assist with immediate enrollment of students who may need to change schools due to homelessness.
- Provides information about community resources for various needs, and coordinates transportation to ensure students can attend school.
- Assists with obtaining needed documentation for the student's file (birth certificate, immunizations, social security card, previous records, etc.).
- Regularly communicates with families and school staff to ensure that homeless children are receiving needed services.

Services Offered for Qualified McKinney-Vento Students

- Transportation to and from school (if more than 2.5 miles)
- School supplies/uniforms
- Additional educational programs and support
- Automatic enrollment in free breakfast and lunch program
- Waive required school fees and other student fees associated to exams or educational programs
- Referrals for clothes, food, and additional resources as needed
- School physicals and immunizations
- Cap-and-gown fees
- Clothing and shoes necessary to participate in physical education classes

As a Youth, Understand:

- You are NOT ALONE.
- There are many services that can help you like guidance counselors, school liaisons, and hotline resources.
- Speak to someone at your school or contact your district Homeless Liaison listed on the back for this pamphlet.
- You have a RIGHT to education services, regardless of your status, which are protected by these resources.

As a Parent, You Should:

- Know and understand your rights pertaining to homelessness
- Clearly state to the liaison, shelter and/or school administrator the needs of child(ren)
- Communicate with your child's local liaison on a regular basis.
- Meet the teachers immediately and follow up with them regularly to find out how your child is doing academically and socially.
- Work with the school counselor to help your child adjust to changes in the
- be affecting schoolwork.
- Get to know the principals, secretaries, nurses, bus drivers, and social workers.
