Posting Date: March 11, 2015

Full Time Romance Languages Instructor
(10- month Tenure Track position)

(Review of resumes will begin approximately April 1, 2015 with employment beginning August 15, 2015)

Hudson County Community College is an award-winning, comprehensive urban college located just across the Hudson River from Manhattan in Jersey City and Union City, NJ. Fully accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, the College offers courses and classes in a wide variety of disciplines to the people and businesses of Hudson County, one of the most historic and ethnically diverse areas of the United States. The College was recognized with the 2012 Association of Community College Trustees (ACCT) Northeast Regional Equity Award, was one of just five finalists in the U.S. for the American Association of Community Colleges’ (AACC) Student Success Award, and was presented with the New Jersey Business & Industry Association’s New Good Neighbor Awards in 2009 for the Culinary Conference Center and in 2012 for the North Hudson Higher Education Center.

The College is currently searching for a full-time tenure track Romance Languages Instructor within the College’s Humanities Division. Under the general supervision of the Associate Dean of Humanities, the Instructor of Romance Languages is responsible for teaching 15 credits per semester of day, evening and weekend classes, maintaining office hours, providing advisement for students, participating in curriculum development/review, textbook selection, and student learning outcomes assessment; and participating in division and College-wide committees and professional development activities.

The successful candidate will demonstrate an understanding of the mission of an urban community college and have experience working with a culturally diverse community. Demonstrable knowledge of pedagogical technology, strong interpersonal and communication skills. Demonstrated ability to provide diverse teaching methods to different learning styles. Must be able to teach students from diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, and ethnic backgrounds. Master’s Degree in Romance Languages or closely related discipline from a regionally accredited institution of higher education, as well as a minimum of three years of teaching experience (preferably at the community college level). Priority given to those able to teach both Spanish and French. Finalists will be required to submit official transcripts and to provide a teaching demonstration. Experience in distance education. Proficiency with various computer software programs, assessment software such as WEAVE, and the use of Ellucian-Colleague or similar higher education platform preferred.

To Apply: Send letter of application, résumé, salary requirements and names/contact information of three professional references.
