- Maintain regular office hours.
- Advise students and assist in their registration for courses.
- Attend and participate in campus-wide events, particularly those regarding professional development.
- Participate in campus and divisional life through committee work and special assignments consistent with the Professional Association contract.

Requirements:
- An earned M.A. in Speech-Communication, English (or equivalent) with either a specialization in or substantial study of Public Speaking.
- Demonstrated ability with best practices and new approaches in pedagogy and assessment.
- Demonstrated ability with the use of instructional technology.
- Demonstrated understanding of the demands and opportunities of teaching at a culturally diverse urban community college.

Preferred:
- Experience with distance learning.
- Experience with outcomes assessment, to include WEAVE assessment software.
- One to three years of experience teaching college-level Public Speaking, preferably at a community college.
- Ability to teach in an additional Humanistic subject, especially Film or Children’s Literature.

To Apply: Send letter of application, résumé, salary requirements and names/contact information of three professional references.
