VACANCY NOTIFICATION

Posting Date: November 29, 2012

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES INSTRUCTOR

Hudson County Community College, a fast-growing mid-sized urban community college, is looking for a full-time Environmental Studies Instructor. Full-time faculty teach 15 credits/contact hours per semester of day and evening classes, maintain office hours, provide advisement for students, assist in curriculum development and review, and participate in College and professional development activities. Candidate must be able to teach at the Journal Square and North Hudson Higher Education Center locations. The successful candidate will demonstrate an understanding of and commitment to the role of a comprehensive community college in an urban, multi-cultural setting. Finalists will be required to submit official transcripts.

REQUIRED: Master’s degree in Environmental Science, Environmental Studies, or closely related field from a regionally accredited institution of higher education. Demonstrated knowledge of modern teaching technologies and their use in the classroom. Demonstrated understanding of, and ability to provide, diverse teaching methods to different learning styles. Must be able to teach students from diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, and ethnic backgrounds. Experience with interdisciplinary programs a plus. PREFERRED: Experience in creating or offering course in online formats. Proficiency with various computer software programs and the use of Ellucian (formerly DATATEL) or similar higher education platform. Minimum of 2-3 years of college-level teaching experience, preferably at the community college level preferred (entry-level teachers will be considered).
