

How to Sign Into VDI

Step 1:

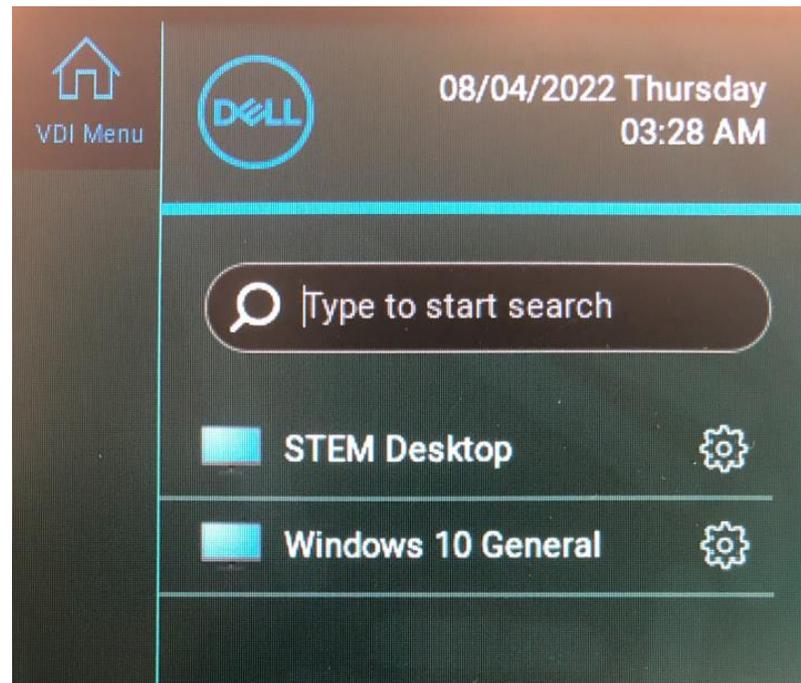

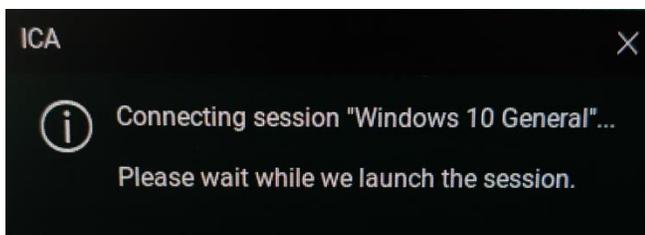

Enter your HCCC email address without the @hccc.edu into the username and then enter your password in the password section.

Leave the Domain name as hccc.edu

Step 2:

Once you log in, you will see the VDI Home Menu on the right side. Click on Window 10 General folder. A window will appear saying it will be connecting and for you to wait.

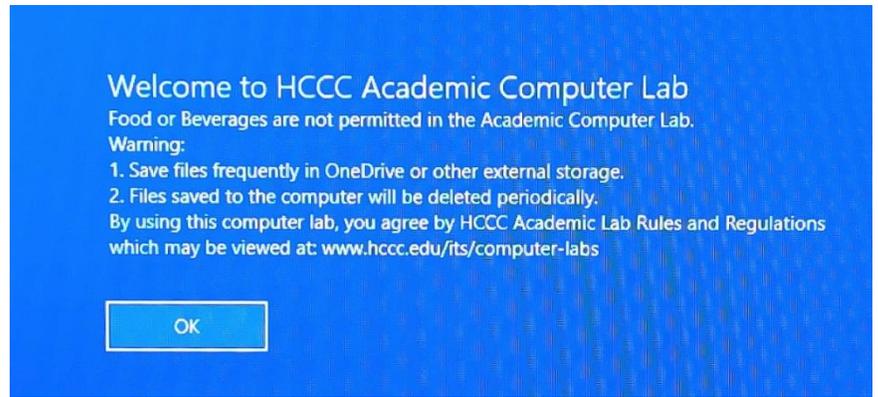

Step 3:

You will now see a blue window. Click OK.

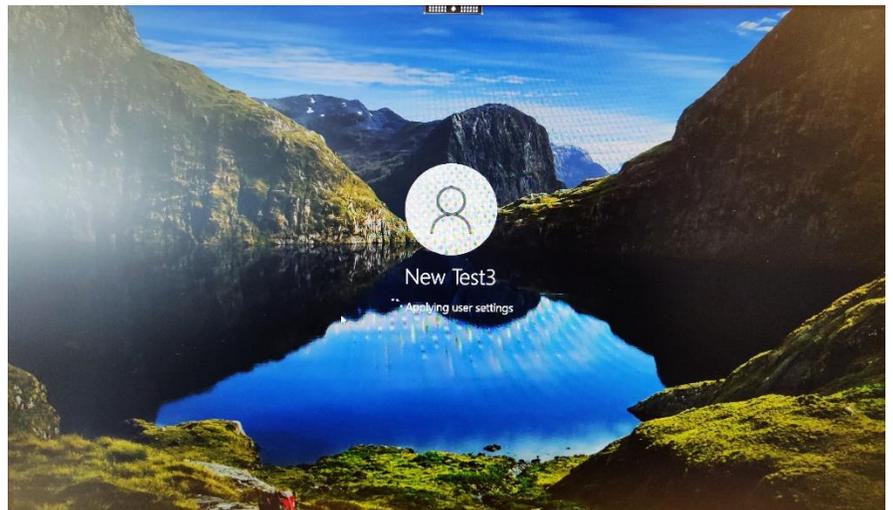

Please “Do not save on the Desktop”. Files saved on the desktop will not be retained when logging out.

Please save files on OneDrive.

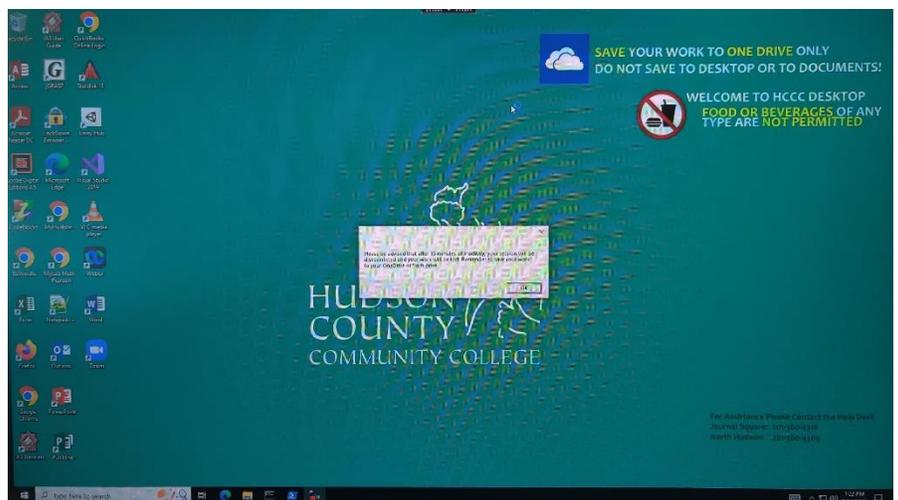

Step 4:

An administrator will first appear and then your username. Wait until your screen finishes loading.

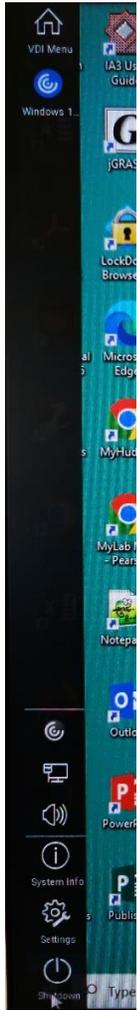

Step 5:

Click OK on the inactivity notification. You can now begin to use the computer.
