

Goldman Sachs Local College Collaborative

6 Years of
Experiential Learning

Faculty Mentors and Program Administrator

Dr. Peter Cronrath
Assistant Professor of Business
6th Year Faculty Mentor

Karen Galli
Lecturer, English & ESL
2nd Year Faculty Mentor

Victoria Marino
Director of Career Services
3rd Year Program
Administrator

Participating Colleges and Universities

Program Overview

- September – Recruiting Students
- October – Interviews of Students Occur
- November – Selection of up to 10 HCCC Students
- December – Welcoming Students Celebration & Team Charter
- January – Case Study Debrief & Research Gathering
- February – Mind Mapping & Partner Company Site Visit
- March – Idea Development & Team Building
- April – Presentation Prep
- May – Final Presentation

Program Eligibility For Students

HCCC Standards:

- 2.8 or higher GPA
- At least 15 credits to apply
- Application
- PowerPoint Presentation
- Committee Group Interview

HCCC Students:

- GPA Average of 3.4+
- Average Credits 30+
- Three Jack Kent Cooke Award Recipients
- Transferred to: Columbia U., Boston U., Princeton U., NYU, Baruch CUNY, NJCU, St. Peters U., Rutgers U., NJIT, Montclair U.

HCCC Partner Companies

2017-2018 Newell Brands

2018-2019 NRG Energy

2019-2020 Sherwin Williams

2020-2021 Microsoft Excel Division

2021-2022 CBRE (Coldwell Banker
Richard Ellis)

Goldman Sachs Program & Case Studies

- Professionalism & Networking
 - Brand Building
 - Diversity and Understanding in the Workplace
-
- Real Life Case Study Scenarios
 - Presentation, Analysis, and Professional Writing
 - Innovative Ideas and Creative Solutions
 - Final Presentation to Goldman Sachs and Partner Company Executives

Student and Alumni Perspective

Here is what we learned:

- Current Student: Maria Mellia
HCCC Business Major
- HCCC Alumna: Alani Orriols
HCCC Graduate 2020
- HCCC Alumna: Brianna Heim
HCCC Graduate 2020
- HCCC Alumna: Jasmine Ngin
HCCC Graduate 2021

