

CLINICAL OFFICE PROCEDURES I

MDA 113 Clinical Office Procedures I3.0 UNITS

An introduction to the clinical aspects of medical assisting. Practical experience is provided in the following areas: vital signs, positioning and draping, assisting with examinations, sterilization, asepsis, dressing wounds, recording health history, nutritional needs. Course is offered only once during the academic year.