BASIC GERMAN I

MLG 101Basic German I*3.0 UNITS

Basic German I provides students with an introduction to the German language and culture through a competency-based approach. Academic language and vocabulary are emphasized through guided student interactions with one another and with the instructor. Cultural awareness and grammar are integrated as students progress through the course. *This course is not open to, or designed for, German heritage speakers. Heritage speakers are encouraged to enroll in an alternate modern language course such as Spanish, French, or American Sign Language, etc.
