

MLJ COURSES

BASIC JAPANESE II

MLJ 102Basic Japanese II*3.0 UNITS

This course is a continuation of Basic Japanese I. Students expand their competencies in grammar, listening, pronunciation as well as the Japanese writing system: Hiragana, Katakana and Kanji. Students also gain insight into the Japanese-speaking world and reinforce cultural competencies as they advance through the curriculum. *This course is not open to, or designed for, Japanese heritage speakers. Heritage speakers are encouraged to enroll in higher level Japanese classes as they become available, or an alternate modern language course such as Arabic, French, or American Sign Language.
