

APPLICATION FOR PARTICIPATIONCollaboration between ACUE and Hudson County Community College

The “Designing Student Centered Courses” course is an 8 -week course that will begin on April 4th, 2022 and end May 22, 2022. Hudson County Community College has partnered with the Association of College and University Educators (ACUE;) to offer a course of study that where participants will learn evidence-based practices for designing powerful learning outcomes, and align aspects of your course to support students in meeting those outcomes and planning a first day that ensures students are prepared to start strong (ACUE.org.)

Section A

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

PERSONAL DATA

Department: _____ Title: _____

Number of years at HCCC: _____ Full-time / Adjunct (circle one)

Section BHave you had formal pedagogical training? Y/N
How many courses are you teaching this semester? _____INTERESTCan you commit to an online class and mentor group for approximately three hours per week? Y/NSection C INCENTIVE

Hudson County Community College is delighted to invest in your professional development in ACUE’s micro-credential. Upon completion of the course you will earn a micro-credential in this course endorsed by the American Council on Education.

If selected to invest in this professional development opportunity, I promise to be engaged weekly and keep up with the module, an active participant including managing my course work in a responsible manner consistent with Hudson County Community College’s mission, vision, and values.

Y/NSection D STATEMENT

Below, please write a brief summary of your interest in this initiative and your goals for completing this course. Participants will be chosen for their interest level and for the goals they would like to achieve in classroom teaching.

Write your statement here.

Section E DECISIONDecision: Y/N

Rational for decision:

Signature _____Date _____*Return the completed application to proberson@hccc.edu by, March 25th, 2022.