

Teaching and Learning Symposium on Social Justice in Higher Education 2023

Monday, February 27–Friday, March 3, 2023

Show up!
Listen up!
Speak up!

Join us in a powerful and phenomenal week-long pedagogical event as acclaimed thought leaders in social and racial justice share their expertise.

VIRTUAL EVENT

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Dr. Wayne A. I. Frederick

17th President, Howard University,
Professor of Surgery

Dr. Jessica Pryce

Child Advocate, Social Scientist, TED
Resident, Executive Director of the Florida Institute for Child Welfare

Dr. Sarah Ketchen Lipson

Fulbright Scholar, Assistant Professor,
Dept. of Health, Law, Policy, and Management, Boston University
Sponsored by: Christie Campus Health

Jacquie Abrams

Forbes List, and International Bestseller; Author of "Hushmoney"

James E. McGreevey, Esq.

52nd Governor of New Jersey,
Chairman, New Jersey
Reentry Corporation

Dr. Teik Lim

9th President of the New Jersey
Institute of Technology, Distinguished Professor of Mechanical Engineering

Dr. Brian Bridges

Secretary of Higher Education,
State of New Jersey,
Former VP of Research & Member
Engagement, UNCF

Carmella Glover

Chief DEI Officer, Arthur W.
Page Society, Adjunct Professor,
Georgetown University

Symposium Tracks:

- Climate Change and The Environment
- Corporate Responsibility
- Health and Healthcare Systems
- The Justice System
- Youth Advocacy

REGISTER NOW:

https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJwtd-yvrDIqE9wYs_f5u1ba04fbi4cmdVHK

For information, contact:

Dr. Paula Roberson, Director, Center for Teaching, Learning, and Innovation | 201-360-4775 | proberson@hccc.edu