Highlights Spring 2017

The mission of the Hudson County Community College Department of Cultural Affairs is to provide supplementary programs to stimulate awareness of the arts and foster creativity. We strive to complement the efforts of HCCC with cultural events, community programs, and educational initiatives. Our goal is to transcend the understanding of visual and performing arts by closing the distance between the experience of art and everyday life in the community we serve.

Georgia Brooks LGBTQIA Exhibition, Film Screening & Discussion

HCCC celebrates the legacy of Georgia Brooks. Brooks was an active advisor for the Gay-Straight Alliance at Hudson County Community College.

In 1961, Georgia moved to Brooklyn, New York. In 1986, Georgia started working at Hudson County Community College, Jersey City, NJ and was instrumental in creating the computer lab where she became the Academic Lab Manager and continued until she retired. While at the College she also attained her AAS in Data Processing in 1986. She established the Georgia M. Brooks Family Scholarship to help students in need of financial assistance. In 2001, Georgia was the winner of the NISOD Award (National Institute for Staff and Organizational Development) and in 2010 Georgia was a nominee for the Hudson County Community College Employee Courtesy Award. Georgia was very dedicated to improving student life and their knowledge of the computer systems.

Georgia Brooks LGBTQIA Film Screening Featured Film *Tom in America

March 28, 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Jacques Mitchell, Curator

Jacques Mitchell's recent stage credits include an off-off Broadway run in Summer and Smoke, in which he played John Buchanan, Jr. (directed by Terry Schreiber). He also had the recent pleasure of working with NyLon Fusion Theatre Co. with the series This Round's on Us. And Jacques continues to tread the boards with JULIANA, a staged series of LGBT life during World War II (Vanda).

Mitchell's most recently completed production is the Indie film project Harlemites. Harlemites was written and directed by Michael Taylor Jackson. You can also find Jacques' short film, Tom in America, in the festival circuit in which he plays opposite Burt Young and Sally Kirkland, directed by Flavio Alves. And he was thrilled to be cast in a new and upcoming Web series, The Grass Is Always Greener, written by six-time Emmy nominee Meredith Post.

HCCC Lecture Series at the Culinary Conference Center

An Afternoon with Celebrity Chef Anne Burrell

March 30, 12 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Culinary Conference Center

For more information and to make a reservation visit: www.hccc.edu/tickets.

Television personality and American chef, Anne Burrell shares secrets to her success with HCCC. She most recently starred with Rachael Ray in Worst Cooks in America on the Food Network.

With her trademark spiky blond hair and pumped-up personality, Anne Burrell has become a starlet on the Food Network and has worked at some of the top restaurants in New York City. She pursued her interest in the restaurant business by enrolling in the Culinary Institute of America. Anne then took the opportunity to spread her culinary knowledge, and passion as a teacher, at the Institute of Culinary Education.

Burrell has been on countless television shows. She battled alongside Mario Batali as his sous chef on Food Network's Iron Chef America. Burrell makes restaurant dishes accessible and reveals concise, easy-to-master techniques for the at-home cook on her Food Network series Secrets of a Restaurant Chef. Additionally, on her show Chef Wanted, Anne helps top restaurateurs find candidates with the right experience and creativity to become executive chefs.

HCCC Lecture Series at the Culinary Conference Center

An Afternoon with Catherine Walker Broadway from My Bedroom: You Have to Start Somewhere

Performance held in the Culinary Conference Center, Scott Ring Room

May 2, 12 p.m. to 3 p.m., FREE

High tea reception to follow for attendees.

For more information and to make a reservation visit: www.hccc.edu/tickets.

One of Broadway's brightest stars, Catherine Walker, brings Broadway to HCCC. She most recently starred on Broadway in the Tony Award winning Best Musical, A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder as Phoebe D'Ysquith.

Miss Walker made her New York debut in the original Broadway cast of Disney's musical hit, Mary Poppins, and became Broadway's second Mary, flying over the heads and into the hearts of the New York audiences for over 100 performances. Miss Walker has starred in numerous productions in major theaters all across America. Among them, Christine in Phantom of the Opera, Julie Jordan in Carousel, Magnolia in Show Boat, Fiona in Brigadoon, Gypsy in Gypsy, and Maria Von Trapp in The Sound of Music, for which she won the prestigious Carbonell Award as Best Actress in a Musical.

Community Day Trips

Tuesday, February 28 - Stomp

8 p.m. Orpheum Theatre, Community Member: $49

Matchboxes, brooms, garbage cans, Zippo lighters and more fill the stage with energizing beats at STOMP, the inventive and invigorating stage show that's dance, music and theatrical performance blended together in one electrifying rhythm.

Tuesday, March 21- Aladdin on Broadway

7 p.m., New Amsterdam Theatre, Community Member: $55

Discover a whole new world at Aladdin, the hit Broadway musical. From the producer of The Lion King comes the timeless story of Aladdin, a thrilling new production filled with unforgettable beauty, magic, comedy and breathtaking spectacle. It's an extraordinary theatrical event where one lamp and three wishes make the possibilities infinite.

Thursday, March 23 - Beautiful: The Carole King Musical

7 p.m., Stephen Sondheim Theatre, Community Member: $49

Before she was Carole King, superstar—she was Carol Klein, teenage songwriter. Her music would become the soundtrack to a generation. Beautiful tells the inspiring true story of King's remarkable rise to stardom, from being part of a hit songwriting team with her husband, to her relationship with fellow writers and best friends Cynthia Weil and Barry Mann, to becoming one of the most successful solo acts in popular music history. Along the way, she made more than beautiful music, she wrote the soundtrack to a generation.

Tuesday, April 18 - Kinky Boots

7 p.m., The Al Hirschfeld Theatre, Community Member: $42

Based on true events, Kinky Boots tells the heartwarming and humorous story of two people with nothing in common — or so they think! Charlie is a factory owner struggling to save his family business. Lola is a fabulous entertainer with a wildly exciting idea. With a little compassion and a lot of understanding, this unexpected pair learns to embrace their differences and creates a line of sturdy stilettos unlike any the world has ever seen! But in the end, their most sensational achievement is their friendship.

Wednesday, April 26 - A Bronx Tale

7 p.m., Longacre Theatre, Community Member: $40

A Bronx Tale is a streetwise musical that takes you to the stoops of the Bronx in the 1960s—where a young man is caught between the father he loves and the mob boss he'd love to be. Featuring a doo-wop score, A Bronx Tale is a story about respect, loyalty, love, and above all else: family.

Hip-Hop Utopia: Culture + Community

Michelle Vitale and Fred Fleisher, Curators

Say word? Word. Since its inception, Hip-hop has always given a voice to the marginalized and disenfranchised. Today, the park jams have evolved into a global community of bold expression. Hip-hop now imposes its social influence and commentary to current issues including culture, ethnicity, class, and gender.

Community partners and artists include Animal, Chilltown Collective, Grove Street Bicycles, Yishai Minkin, and Raphael Gonzalez.

Exhibition Opens: January 23, 2017

Reception: January 31, 2017, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Turntable Tuesdays: February 7 & 21, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Exhibition Closes: February 21, 2017

Quantum Overdrive!

Fred Fleisher, Curator

When deciding to curate this show, I looked at the working methods of the various artists and their systems of variety within a studio practice. I took as my lead an exhibit I previously curated that was inspired by the strange function of quarks at the quantum level. As with that show, I believe this larger grouping of artists will result in a dynamic exhibit of contradictions and unique approaches. Specifically, with each artist there is a shaping of reality, materially speaking, or a defining of reality in terms of content.

-Curator Fred Fleisher

Exhibiting artists include Jude Broughan, Marguerite Day, Ketta Loannidou, Joanne Leah, Tricia McLaughlin, Helen O'Leary, Rachel Phillips, Laurie Riccadonna, Adie Russell, Savannah Spirit, and Woolpunk.

Exhibition Opens: March 3, 2017

Reception & Panel: March 3, 2017, 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Exhibition Closes: April 19, 2017

Exhibitions

A World Where We Belong

Arthur Brusco and Raymond Mingst, Curators

The inspiration for this exhibition comes directly from Georgia Brooks. As a young woman Georgia had heard that you could find anything on 42nd Street in New York City. So, she set out to find some books—books that might somehow relate to her as a lesbian. The books Ms. Brooks found, 'helped me to not feel isolated and gave me hope that I might find a lesbian, or some lesbians, so eventually I found a lot of them.'

~Curators Brusco & Mingst

A World Where We Belong exhibition highlights Hudson County artists, writers, and musicians sharing seminal works of art, writing, music, and objects that, like Ms. Brooks, helped them find themselves reflected in the world at large.

Exhibition Opens: March 3, 2017

Reception & Curator Talk: March 28, 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Exhibition Closes: April 19, 2017

HCCC Art Department Review

Fred Fleisher, Curator

The HCCC Art Department offers a wide variety of classes in computer and visual arts taught by professional artists living in the New York metropolitan area. HCCC celebrates the artistic talents of our community with a bi-annual exhibition in the Dineen Hull Gallery.

Exhibition Opens: May 3, 2017

Curator Talk: Fred Fleisher: May 3, 12 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Reception: June 1, 2017, 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Exhibition Closes: June 1, 2017

Spring 2017 Calendar

The Department of Cultural Affairs welcomes artist and professor Fred Fleisher as guest curator for spring exhibitions.

Fred Fleisher was born in Pennsylvania and lives and works in Brooklyn, NY. After an enlistment in the Army he earned a BFA and BS from Penn State, and MFA from Queens College, CUNY. Currently Rockelmann & in Berlin, Germany and Stuart & Co. of Chicago, IL represent his work, and he has had recent solo exhibitions at both galleries. Fred is an adjunct professor here at Hudson County Community College and also teaches at SUNY, College at Old Westbury.
