WAVES OF CHANGE

Benjamin J. Dineen III & Dennis C. Hull Gallery transforms into a center for social change. Contemporary Peacemakers: Waves of Change takes inspiration from Régine Michelle Jean-Charles', A Trumpet of Conscience for the 21st Century: King's Call to Justice. Jean-Charles examines the influence of Martin Luther King's 1960s-era speeches on American social movements. HCCC celebrates Dr. King's activism through historical documents, the arts, and community projects in the Benjamin J. Dineen III and Dennis C. Hull Gallery. The exhibit timeline begins with King's legendary visit to Jersey City and archives other social change throughout the decades, ending with the Black Lives Matters movement and Tamika Palmer's virtual event which took place in the gallery in February 2021. Other highlights include an interactive word display created by the Poetry and Language Collective, NJ Reentry Program original works of art, a digital mural by the PACDEI Student Action Group, and an ever-changing food donation sculpture sponsored by Goya Foods. Community partners include HCCC PACDEI Student Action Group, Goya Foods, the Jersey Room, Museum of Jersey City History, the National Honors Society at McNair High School, the NJ Reentry Program, HCCC Foundation Collection, and the HCCC Poetry and Language Collective, among others.
