The mission of the Hudson County Community College Department of Cultural Affairs (DOCA) is to provide supplementary programs to stimulate awareness of the arts and foster creativity. We strive to complement the efforts of HCCC with cultural events, community programs, and educational initiatives. Our goal is to transcend the understanding of visual and performing arts by closing the distance between the experience of art and everyday life in the community we serve.

FALL 2019

FALL WELCOME

DOCA kicks off the 100th anniversary of the Women's Suffrage Movement with yearlong programming celebrating the fierce females of New Jersey. Programs are in partnership with Jersey City Public Schools and Jersey City Office of Cultural Affairs, among other local organizations.

Our season opens with an artist reception on August 1 for Pow(h)er, an all-women contemporary exhibition. Pow(h)er illuminates the creativity of female artists focusing on a variety of issues including immigration, fertility, and the body. Jersey City resident and curator Kristin DeAngelis co-curated the exhibit, which features the work of Caroline Burton and Jan Huling, both of whom recently exhibited at the Montclair Art Museum; Trix Rosen, whose photography was featured at MOMA in 2018; Jodie Fink, and Zoë Sua Kay, among other extraordinary women artists.

The fall season continues with Relatable, an exhibit curated with the assistance of the new HCCC Gallery Management Class. Relatable highlights the importance of art in everyday life and features emerging and established artists who live or work throughout the state of New Jersey. HCCC alumnus Freddy Samboy and HCCC Professors Michael Lee and Jon Rappleye are joined by artists Beth Achenbach, Pat Lay, Ibou Ndoye, Jim Watt, and others. The exhibit also includes the global skateboard collective, Wenning Boards, Boards for Bros, and the Oaxaca Foundation.

Our Teacher as Artist exhibit features the work of HCCC Professor Katie Niewodowski whose art explores the interconnectedness of all living beings. In celebration of Jersey City LGBT Pride Week, join us for a meet and greet on August 20 with mocktails on the Dineen Hull Gallery roof terrace.

You can find up-to-date program information on Facebook, Instagram, and the HCCC website. We sincerely hope you enjoy all of our free cultural offerings. See you on the sixth floor of the Gabert Library Building!

Sincerely,
Michelle Vitale
Director of Cultural Affairs

GALLERY TOURS

DOCA welcomes Hudson County community members, organizations, businesses, and school groups to enjoy our cultural programs at the College. Groups of 6 to 30 visitors are invited to a FREE 45-minute tour of our current fall exhibitions in the Dineen Hull Gallery.

Katie Niewodowski

August 1 – December 15
Both Campus Libraries
Reception: August 20, 4-7 p.m.,
Dineen Hull Gallery Atrium

Katie Niewodowski grew up on the west coast of Florida and has lived in Jersey City since 2006 where she makes her art and owns a personalized portrait company, Petitraits. She is a professor of Visual Arts at Hudson County Community College, Montclair State University, and Stevens Institute of Technology. Niewodowski received her BFA from Ringling College of Art and Design and her MFA from Montclair State University.

Her work is a meditation on the phenomenon of life and the creative structures that perpetuate it. She explores repeating patterns in nature, the interconnectedness of all living beings, and the portal into these networks that the process of art-making provides. See more of Niewodowski's work at www.katieniewo.com.

Join us for mocktails and artist reception for Katie Niewodowski on the roof terrace during Jersey City Pride Week, at the Dineen Hull Gallery Atrium, 71 Sip Ave. 6th Fl., Jersey City. *We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived. We loved. And now we lie
Here, in the cold ground.
The days fields,
Take up our quarrel with the foe
To you from a lonely place, far thro'
The woods, to the lone
We break fresh with us who die
To-day, to-day, though we
In Flanders fields.*
