

50 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

HUDSON COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Interested in learning more about the history and current educational initiatives of Hudson County Community College, the expansion of the Journal Square neighborhood, or the early years of Christ Hospital's Nursing School? The Museum of Jersey City History has increased its hours to Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Sundays from 1 to 5 pm. To schedule a group tour, email: Salma Abdelwahed at sabdelwahed@hccc.edu. The Museum is free and open to the public.

Special thanks to the HCCC President's Office, the HCCC Library Archive, community members, HCCC staff and faculty, dedicated students and alumni, the Jersey City Free Public Library New Jersey Room, and the Museum of Jersey City History for making this possible.

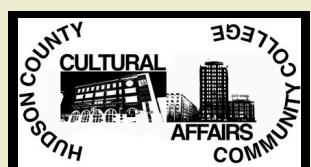

ALL ARE WELCOME

The Benjamin J. Dineen III and Dennis C. Hull Gallery turns 10 as Hudson County Community College (HCCC) celebrates 50 years of educational service, engagement, and excellence. The cultural philanthropists, Dineen and Hull, donated many artworks from their personal collection to Hudson, which helped to revolutionize the arts at HCCC. All Are Welcome emulates Dineen and Hull's legacy of acceptance and support, highlighting their collected paper and print works by internationally acclaimed artists Kiki Smith, Barbara Krueger, Chakaia Booker, among others.
