HUDSON COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE HOLDS SUCCESSFUL 15TH ANNUAL HOLIDAY GALA

The Hudson County Community College Foundation held the largest and most festive of its annual fundraisers — the 15th Annual Holiday Gala on Thursday evening, December 6, 2012 at the HCCC Culinary Arts Institute/Conference Center, 161 Newkirk Street in Jersey City. Proceeds from the event rose to more than $200,000 and will be dedicated to scholarships for deserving students, faculty development programs, and the College's physical expansion.

PSE&G was the recipient of the 2012 Distinguished Service Award, which recognizes organizations and individuals for their work on behalf of the College and the people of Hudson County. Richard Dwyer, Regional Public Affairs Manager for PSE&G and a Director of the HCCC Foundation, accepted the award of the company's behalf.

"PSE&G has been a partner to the College for some time, and we are pleased to have the opportunity to thank them on behalf of the College and our students," said Vice President for Development Joseph Sansone.

One of the key features of the Holiday Gala was the hospitality hour, where area restaurants prepared and served hors d'oeuvres and cocktails. Participating restaurants included Encore Catering, Havana Dulce, Lisbon, Michael Anthony's, P J Ryan's, Rita & Joe's, Renato's Pizza Masters, Rumba Cubana, and Tejo.

The event also featured a gourmet dinner feast prepared by the chef-instructors from the College's nationally acclaimed Culinary Arts Institute, and served by students from the College's acclaimed Culinary Arts program.

"Special thanks go to our wonderful Culinary Arts Institute faculty and staff, and to all the other members of the College community who worked so hard to make this event so successful," said HCCC President Dr. Glen Gabert.

During the Gala, the winning tickets of the annual "Lucky Odds" raffle were drawn. The Grand Prize winner, James Adams, received 40% of the raffle ticket sales ($4,520), Second Prize winner, Foundation Director Patrick DiSanto, was awarded 6% ($678), and Third Prize winner, HCCC Trustee Karen Fahrenholz, was presented with 4% ($452).

Established in 1997, the Hudson County Community College Foundation continues to play an integral role in the development of HCCC students, the College and the community. The Foundation is dedicated to generating financial support for the College and its students, developing and awarding needs-based and merit scholarships, providing seed money for faculty programs, and providing for the College's physical growth. Since its founding, the HCCC Foundation has provided scholarships to more than 1,000 students who otherwise might not have been able to pursue a college education.

PHI THETA KAPPA HONOR SOCIETY NEWS

Post-Sandy Cleanup of Liberty State Park

On Saturday, Nov. 17, Liberty State Park undertook a cleanup of the park following Superstorm Sandy. Phi Theta Kappa volunteers Ilgner Bosch, his brother Randy, Ana Slattery and daughter Melanie, Donna Phang-Good, Professor Ted Lai and alumna, Qian Xie answered LSP's call to assist in these efforts.

More than 400 volunteers worked and picked up litter from the storm surge that was pushed throughout Liberty State Park. They removed litter from the lawns and a sunken area which had been once leveled.

LSP officials have estimated that it may take up to nine months to restore the park for public use. Small paver stones were dislodged. The ferry terminal and docks, the Nature Interpretive Center, the historic Central Railroad of New Jersey Terminal, walkways, and the newly opened picnic area all sustained extensive damage.

On Friday, Nov. 30, The Jersey Journal published a letter by Sam Pesin, President of the Friends of LSP, thanking all of the volunteers – including Hudson County Community College – for their assistance during the Nov. 17 cleanup.

TRICK OR TRANSFER FAIR

On Thursday, Oct. 25, 2012, Hudson County Community College's Center for Academic & Student Success, in conjunction with the Office of Student Activities hosted the event of the season, "Trick or Transfer." This event was hosted in the Culinary Arts Institute/Conference Center on the Journal Square campus in Jersey City. The collaboration was developed to engage students during the holiday season while giving them the opportunity to mingle and learn about the transfer process, transfer opportunities, and the departments and services on campus.

Over 300 students, staff, faculty, and administrators from the College participated in the highly anticipated event. Career & Transfer Services coordinated with admission recruiters from more than thirty-nine (39) four-year colleges and universities who visited the campus with hopes of recruiting Hudson's finest. For many recruiters, this was the first event of its kind that they had attended and many were excited to be a part of the festivities, asking if they could offer treats at their booths, as well. There were many familiar faces and some new ones too.

Attendees were treated to "Monster Mash" music to put them in a festive mood, along with hot apple cider, fresh baked pies, and a wide variety of trick or treat candies. As students wound around the rooms, they were able to "pick-a-pumpkin" out of the pumpkin patch for exciting prizes – courtesy of Student Activities, grab a handful of candy, and decorate their own pumpkin cupcakes.

As all of this excitement was going on inside the CAI, outside in the park culinary arts students graciously entertained as they carved ice masterpieces. Students in Intermediate Garde Manger flexed their chainsaw skills creating one-of-a-kind ice sculptures of dragons, witches, and Frankenstein. Amazingly, these students had only learned the previous day how to use the tools and sketch their designs.

Throughout this event students were encouraged to grab as much information about Hudson and other colleges as they could. A questionnaire was distributed asking them to answer various questions about the schools in order to be entered to win a prize. At the end of the day one lucky winner, Jessica Castio, was chosen to win a Kindle Fire.

COMMUNICATIONS UPDATE

REGISTER NOW! www.hccc.edu/mystart

Spring 2013 Advertising

The Communications Department has launched its online Spring advertising campaign. Advertising will be specifically targeted to prospective students in specific ZIP codes and age ranges when they access Facebook, Pandora or Google. When users click on an HCCC ad, they are directed to a Spring 2013 page created on Facebook or a landing page on the College's website (www.hccc.edu/spring). This will provide viewers more spring registration information, along with the ability to watch a video about the College, to email or register online.

In addition to the online campaign, print advertising in English and Spanish is being published in The Jersey Journal, The Hudson Reporter, The Courier Times, River View Observer, Cambio and El Especialito over the next several weeks. All of the ads display the QR code ("quick response code") which users can click on with their smartphones and gain access to the College's website page for prospective students.

PROFESSIONAL NOTES

Bakari G. Lee, Esq.

Hudson County Community College Board of Trustees Vice Chairman Bakari G. Lee, Esq. was re-elected as Chairman of the New Jersey Council of County Colleges for the 2012-2013 academic year. He was sworn in at the Council's Nov. 26 meeting. This is Lee's second one-year term in office. Council Chairs may serve up to three one-year terms.

In addition to serving as Council Chairman, Mr. Lee will serve as a member of the Council's seven-member Executive Committee, which includes four community college trustees and three community college presidents. Chairman Lee will help shape statewide community college policies and projects, including the implementation of the Big Ideas Project, the collective effort of all 19 community colleges to improve student success.

Instructor Joseph Caniglia, Instructor Monika Czekaj and Assistant Professor Sharon D'Agastino will present "Using Music to Enhance Higher Order Thinking Skills" at the National Association for Developmental Education (NADE) in Denver in February. They will introduce participants to strategies which incorporate music in strengthening students' analytical and critical thinking skills. Incorporating music into a curriculum enhances students' reading comprehension skills and aids in making reading a more enjoyable process. These strategies, says Caniglia, form an innovative approach to enhance students' enjoyment of reading and help keep them motivated and challenged.

Associate Professor Rosie Soy was interviewed as part of a news story by BBC News Magazine titled "Dominican Women in U.S. Challenge 'Machismo' Culture" (URL: <http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/magazine-20517159>).

On Oct. 29, 2012, Olga Blinova, full-time Instructor in the Health, Science, & Technology division, presented "Making Computer Instruction Meaningful via Interdisciplinary Connection and Interactive Projects" at the 2012 STEMtech League for Innovation conference in Kansas City, Missouri.

Olga created a model that enhances instruction for the "Introduction to Computers and Computing" course at HCCC. The model focuses on student engagement using applied techniques that can be used outside of this particular class. For example, instead of following a step-by-step instruction manual where students create random spreadsheets and perhaps later forget, students are encouraged to draw data out of their MLA research papers and convert the data to useful charts and tables. This hands-on approach allows students to "remember" how to do a spreadsheet because they have used it within a relevant collegiate context. We congratulate Olga on a job well done!

GET CONNECT-ED WITH HCCC!

Hudson County Community College has implemented Connect-ED, a text- and voice-messaging system in the event of a crisis or emergency.

Connect-ED is HCCC's response to a federal law which requires disclosure of pertinent information about campus crime and security.

The system will allow the College to send time-sensitive notifications by phone, email and/or text message.

Both HCCC students and employees have been automatically registered in the emergency-alert system and will receive alerts to their HCCC email accounts unless they opt out.

Users are encouraged to access the College's website, www.hccc.edu/emergency, and click on the Connect-ED link to register additional contact information such as home, work, and cell phone numbers.

HCCC will provide this emergency service free of charge to students and employees — there is no charge to sign up. However, mobile service providers may charge a fee for incoming messages depending on an individual's plan.

Personal information entered into the Connect-ED system will be kept confidential.

From the Office of College Life

Each month, the "College Life Corner" will introduce members of the College community and recognize milestone anniversaries among our employees. We will highlight employee publications, awards, officers in professional organizations, community service, and academic accomplishments.

For comments & suggestions for "College Life Corner," please contact Maureen Sheridan, Director of College Life, at (201) 360-4015 or msheridan@hccc.edu.

Timia Ligon
Coordinator,
LEAP Program

Timia Ligon joined HCCC in 2009 as the Director of the College Bound program. College Bound, a grant funded program, was awarded to HCCC from the Commission on Higher Education. In partnership with Union City High School, this pre-college program provided after-school and summer tutoring, college tours, and educational field trips for 60 Union City high school students.

In October 2010, Timia became the Coordinator for Project LEAP, a dual enrollment partnership between Hudson County Community College and district area high schools. Project LEAP allows high school students to enroll in college level classes and earn credits towards a college and high school degree simultaneously. Classes may be on-site at the high school campus or on the HCCC campus. There are currently 14 participating high schools. Project LEAP has been growing by leaps and bounds.

Prior to moving to New Jersey, Timia worked for the Fayette County Public School System in Lexington, Kentucky as a school social worker. She earned a master's degree in social work at the University of Kentucky and is a licensed certified social worker. Timia earned her bachelor's degree in Corrections and Juvenile Services at Eastern Kentucky University.

It is always great to see her smiling face and upbeat manner around campus. In her spare time, Timia enjoys spending time with her family, shopping, traveling and cooking.

Duane Williams
Acting Director,
Advisement
Counseling

Duane Williams started his career as an Assistant Director of Advisement and Counseling at HCCC in April 2010 and is currently the Acting Director of Advisement and Counseling. Duane brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the College.

Last year, Duane was integral in bringing the "Boys to Men" conference to HCCC for the first time since the program's inception. The one-day mentorship conference invites boys from surrounding high schools to join mentors at HCCC and spend quality time educating themselves in regards to admissions and student activities. The event was so successful that HCCC hosted over 100 students!

A proud graduate of the New Jersey community college system, Duane received an associate degree in business management systems from Union County College. He went on to earn a bachelor's degree in management science and a master's degree in public administration from Kean University.

Prior to joining HCCC, Duane worked at Kean University. As a graduate assistant and then Academic Counselor, he led the GEAR UP program (Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Programs) working with Elizabeth High School students.

What's impressive about Duane is that, as a Residence Hall Director at Kean, he created a unique program named ACCESS (Aiming to Create Community Empowered Student Success) that still exists today. ACCESS is a program designed to address the individual needs of residential students who have not met the required 2.0 GPA to live in the residence halls. Through this program, students are provided with the resources needed to help them succeed academically.

In his spare time, Duane enjoys writing poetry and wants to publish an e-book in the near future. He is also an avid soccer player.

Joseph Caniglia
Instructor, English

Joseph Caniglia joined Hudson County Community College in 2007 as a tutor. In 2008, he took on an additional role as an Academic Foundations' adjunct faculty member. Recognized for his dedication, Joe became a temporary full-time instructor in 2010. In his capacity as a faculty member and tutor, Joe implemented the Writers' Forum and Poetry Night programs for HCCC students.

In 2012, Joe received the College Foundation's Employee Courtesy Award and won the Extra Mile Award from the Academic Foundations division. He also presented at the National Association for Developmental Education (NADE) conference in 2012 and will again present at the NADE Conference in 2013. His proposal to present on "Teaching with Music" has been accepted for the League of Innovations Conference in Dallas, Texas in spring 2013.

Joe is a key facilitator for the Adjunct Faculty Professional Development program. He also instructs new faculty each semester on accessing Gradebook. In 2012, Joe became a tenure-track faculty member and took on the role of part-time Writing Coordinator for the Writing Center, and Reading Coordinator for Academic Foundations.

Joe earned his bachelor's degree in both Reading and Biology from Mercy College and a master's degree in Education from New Paltz University. He was licensed to teach in K-12 from Pace University and began a career in education in the New York school system.

After teaching junior high and high school students for 11 years, Joe joined Upjohn Pharmaceuticals as a trainer, running seminars for hospitals and nursing homes. After several years at Upjohn, Joe felt compelled to return to teaching but wanted to teach at a higher level. That is when he joined HCCC.

Aside from teaching, Joe currently holds the position of Secretary for the All College Council and is a member of the College Life Committee. We are grateful to have dedicated people like Joe as faculty members at HCCC.

INROADS TO FACULTY ENRICHMENT - LIFE SCIENCES ADDRESSES INSTRUCTION IN THE CLASSROOM

This past semester, life science faculty members Abdallah Matari (member), Dr. Nadia Hedhli (chair), Velino Joasil (member) and Salim Bendaoud (member) formed a new committee called the "Faculty Enrichment in Life Sciences Committee" (FELS). This committee provided a series of workshops geared toward faculty development in the area of life sciences.

Understanding the importance of faculty enrichment to enhance student learning in the classroom, the committee provided a platform for faculty to share teaching techniques in the life sciences classroom. The committee scheduled many workshops encompassing a variety of topics such as Safety Practices in Labs, Mastering Molecular Biology Techniques, Easing Biology, Math, Chemistry, and Physics Concepts, etc., and presented them via a series of Saturday workshops during the Fall 2012 semester.

On Saturday, Oct. 6, the committee invited a guest speaker from Yale University, Dr. Kerry Strong Russell, MD, Ph.D. FAHA, to discuss Cytostatic Drugs and the Cardiovascular System. Many people turned out to make the event a big success!

We would like to thank committee members and all those who presented at workshops during these Saturday sessions. For more information regarding the Faculty Enrichment in Life Sciences' committee or to inquire about future presentations, please contact Dr. Nadia Hedhli at (201) 360-4732 or at nhedhli@hccc.edu.

HIGHLIGHTING RECENT TRENDS IN LAB TECHNIQUES

Hudson County Community College Life Science instructor Dr. Nadia Hedhli was praised by fellow colleagues for an exceptional workshop performance. Titled "Frontiers in Biotechnology: Revisiting and Hands on Training" and presented by Dr. Hedhli, this valuable workshop addressed the recent advances in molecular laboratory techniques and provided a platform for Life Science faculty to enhance their laboratory skills.

Dr. Hedhli, a Yale University post-doctorate trainee, pronounced herself honored to hold this workshop. "It is essential for faculty to remain current in this ever-changing world of laboratory techniques, and I am proud to share my expertise with my fellow colleagues to the benefit of our students," she said. Many part-time instructors expressed their satisfaction following this Faculty Enrichment in Life Science (FELS) sponsored workshop and requested more of this kind.

Foundation Art Collection

The Hudson County Community College Foundation Art Collection, which includes artworks in media from painting and sculpture to photographs to American craft pottery and ephemera, reveals aspects of America's and New Jersey's rich artistic and cultural history from the Hudson River School period to today. In recent years, the College's acquisition efforts have focused on strengthening its American and New Jersey modern and contemporary collections.

Each month, this page in HCCC Happenings provides updates on artists whose work is in the collection, and new additions to the collection.

The Hudson County Community College Foundation (HCCC) Art Collection hosted a celebration marking the opening of a permanent art exhibit, "Artwork of the Nuns at the Blue Chapel in Union City, 1930s-1990s," at the HCCC North Hudson Higher Education Center (NHHEC) on Friday, Nov. 30, 2012. A vibrant crowd, which included The Jersey Journal and News 12 New Jersey, attended the reception.

On view is a variety of work in different media by four nuns who spent their lives as artists in the Monastery of the Perpetual Rosary (the Blue Chapel) located in Union City.

One, Sister Mary of the Compassion, O.P., considered by many to be one of the greatest Dominican artists of the 20th century, was born Constance Dorothy Mary Rowe on March 17, 1908 in England. An Associate of the Royal College of Art, she was awarded the Prix de Rome in 1932 for mural painting. Included among the items now in the HCCC permanent art collection are paintings, drawings, and cards all formerly in private collections, as well as costume designs for three medieval musical plays performed at Hunter College Theater in 1957.

Woodblock prints and cards by Sister Mary Gemma of Jesus Crucified, O.P. (baptized Mary Immaculata Trichilo) attest to the Blue Chapel's consistent policy of using the innate talents of community members to assist in the monastery's financial support. Sister Gemma was born on August 1, 1915 in the Italian region of Calabria and entered the cloister of the Blue Chapel in 1939, remaining within until its closing in 2009. Sister died on August 28, 2012.

Other works on display include oils by Sister Mary Hyacinthe, O.P. and Sister Mary Imelda, O.P.

In addition to the permanently installed exhibit on the seventh floor, members of the public were able to visit the Library on the third floor and view other works by the Sisters on loan from a number of private individuals on that day. On display were books illustrated by the Sisters, framed house blessings, sacramental remembrances, Mass cards, pictures, and handmade jewelry by Sister Mary of the Compassion. Jewelry by Sister Mary of the Compassion remains on permanent exhibit in the display case by the librarian's desk.

The HCCC Foundation Art Collection gratefully acknowledges Mr. Clifford Brooks for his generous donations for the opening of the exhibit, "Artwork of the Nuns at the Blue Chapel in Union City 1930s-1990s" and thanks an anonymous donor for 21 art books for our library.

This unfinished crewelwork of a life-size picture of Jesus by Sister Mary of the Compassion, O.P. was part of the temporary exhibit in the Library the day of the opening. This was the last piece the Sister was working on before she died.

HCCC BIOLOGY CLUB FORUM, "LET'S DISCUSS IT," MAKES ITS DEBUT

The Hudson County Community College Biology Club's new forum, "Let's Discuss It," made its debut during the fall semester of 2012. Its objective is to promote healthy scientific debates among students. After watching the documentary titled "The Big Picture: Rethinking Dyslexia," students shared their opinions on this neurological learning disorder. The discussions shed new light on the symptoms of dyslexia for many of our students.

"I was ignorant of this disorder; this documentary opens my eyes, and there are no limits to success," said Biology student Natalia Delgado. The documentary exposed the various challenges posed by dyslexia as well as addressed the poor assumptions about the disorder.

Biology Club advisor Dr. V. B. Joasil expressed satisfaction in the outcome of this first forum. "It is important to raise awareness of this disorder for students to know that there are adjustments that can be made to enjoy academic success," said Dr. Joasil.

Of greater importance is the commitment of the hard-working Biology Club officers, led by Club President Veronica Zurita, to promote the mission of the Club.

NORTH HUDSON LIBRARY CELEBRATES 100,000 VISITORS

On Monday, Sept. 24, the 100,000th visitor walked through the doors of the North Hudson Higher Education Center Library/Learning Resources Center. That visitor represents a year of accomplishment for the Library.

"To achieve this level of success in just 13 months is incredible," said librarian John DeLooper. "When the building opened, many students told us that they weren't even aware that there was a library at North Hudson. Now, it is essential to their studies."

Indeed, when the new North Hudson Higher Education Center opened in August 2011, attracting students proved difficult. Last September's gate count, even with an influx of visitors for the Center's Grand Opening, showed only about 7,000 visits. But the NHHEC Library staff and the whole North Hudson Higher Education Center community teamed up to help attract students, and one year later, monthly visits have nearly doubled, reaching over 13,000.

In the last year, librarians, support staff, and student workers placed posters throughout the building, updated bulletin boards, and worked with faculty members and departments such as Student Activities and Security to spread the word about the Library and its services.

The North Hudson Higher Education Center's Grand Opening in September 2011, along with tours led by Enrollment Services, Student Affairs, and others, and interdepartmental promotions such as March's "Read a Book" contest also spread awareness.

As it stands now, the Library is filled with students studying, collaborating on projects, and accessing online resources such as e-books, journal articles, and streaming videos on the Library's 30 computers.

Faculty and staff are also taking advantage of Library resources. Professors have brought dozens of classes for information literacy instruction, and utilized audiovisual equipment such as laptops, Flip cameras, and Techpods. Others have used the media studio to record instructional videos.

All this activity has not stopped the NHHEC Library/LRC from continuing to expand its services and programs. Its librarians hosted a series of workshops this past fall, with sessions on Newspaper and Magazine Resources on Dec. 3, Using NoodleTools for Citation Management on Dec. 5, and Job and Career Resources on Dec. 18.

To commemorate the 100,000th visitor, the Library/LRC also hosted a prize drawing. Visitors completed an entry at the NHHEC Library between during the month of November. A randomly selected winner, Saily Capetillo, received a $20 gift card to Barnes & Noble to commemorate the occasion.

The North Hudson Higher Education Center Library/Learning Resources Center is open Monday to Friday 8 am – 9 pm, Saturday 9 am – 3 pm, and Sunday 10 am – 3 pm. Visit www.hccc.edu/library, call 201-360-4605, or e-mail librarynhc@hccc.edu for more information.
