

Articulation Agreements

The Construction Management program at HCCC has articulation agreements with various institutions of higher education where students graduating from AAS in Construction Management program can transfer their credits to pursue 4-year bachelor's degree in construction discipline.

Articulation Agreement between HCCC Construction Management Program and the partner institutions

HCCC - Degree	Partner Institutions	Partner Institutions (Degree)
A.A.S. in Construction Management (60 credit program)	Fairleigh Dickinson University (FDU)	B.S. in Construction Engineering Technology (BSConET) (HCCC students can transfer 52 credits earned in the AAS program and can also get 40% discount in FDU tuition)
A.A.S. in Construction Management (60 credit program)	Thomas Edison State University (TESU)	B.S. in Construction (HCCC students can transfer all 60 credits earned in the AAS program)
A.A.S. in Construction Management (60 credit program)	Rowan University (RU)	B.A. in Construction Management (HCCC students can transfer 57 credits earned in the AAS program)
Certificate in Construction Management (1-year) (34 credit program)	Fairleigh Dickinson University (FDU)	B.S. in Construction Engineering Technology (BSConET) (HCCC students can transfer 28 credits earned in the certificate program and can also get 40% discount in FDU tuition)