

Lab/Simulation Statement

Please be advised that students accepted, will be required to fully participate in simulation scenarios as the patient and radiographer. The purpose is to replicate the process for performing exams on actual patients. This aids in preparing the students to perform required competencies and care for actual patients. Students are expected to respect their fellow classmates during scenarios and debriefing sessions.

