TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19 CHEF HUGH ACHESON: Leadership Lessons from the Kitchen

Food & Wine's 'Best Chef,' winner of two James Beard Foundation Awards, and food advocate Hugh Acheson brings a fresh perspective to how we grow, cook, and shop for food.

At Hugh Acheson's restaurant 5 &10, there are no managers; every employee takes equal responsibility for customer experience and the restaurant's success. As the visionary force behind the restaurant, Chef Acheson worked to build a trustworthy team, carefully staffing and training each position to encourage ownership and authenticity. By empowering people and aligning your vision with the wants, aspirations and attitudes of your teammates, you respect them, and they give it back. Emphasizing the importance of teamwork, Chef Acheson explains his unique approach to management and how it can help you.

A speaker whose experience can be translated into all fields, join HCCC and Hugh Acheson by visiting www.hccc.edu/tickets to secure your free spot.

AUGUST

August 1 – September 24

Exhibit: Pow(h)er

Curated by Kristin J. DeAngelis and Michelle Vitale

Pow(h)er is a contemporary exhibition honoring the women's equality movement and the centennial anniversary of the Women's Suffrage Movement. Featuring art by Caroline Burton and Jan Huling, both of whom recently exhibited at the Montclair Art Museum; Trix Rosen, whose photography was featured at MOMA in 2018; Ekaterina Abramova, Pam Cooper, Jodie Fink, Blond Jenny, Zoë Sua Kay, Donna Kessinger, Lucy Rovetto, Theda Sandiford, Leslie Sheryll, and Judy Wukitsch.

August 1 – December 15

Teacher as Artist: Katie Niewodowski

Curated by Michelle Vitale

Both Campus Libraries

HCCC Professor Katie Niewodowski's work is a meditation on the phenomenon of life and the creative structures that perpetuate it. She explores repeating patterns in nature, the interconnectedness of all living beings, and the portal into these networks that the process of art-making provides.

SEPTEMBER

September 16 - December 15

Exhibit: Solo

Curated by Michelle Vitale

The Department of Cultural Affairs presents Solo a new exhibition series celebrating projects by mid-career artists on display in the atrium of Dineen Hull Gallery. DOCA is excited to feature Roberta Melzl as our first artist. Melzl's work is created from an accumulation of sources. It is characterized by the incorporation of various systems of visual representation—embracing elements of technology, architecture, nature, design, and media.

For more information, visit www.hccc.edu/cultural-affairs/exhibition/.

September 24

HCCC celebrates the artistic talents of our community with a bi-annual student exhibition in the Dineen Hull Gallery. Join the art department, students, professors, and staff on December 6 for the fall Student Art Exhibition opening reception. Music provided by DOCAS's house deejay, DJ Vaselli. Light refreshments will be served. For more information, visit www.hccc.edu/cultural-affairs/exhibition. The opening is also a stop on JC Fridays—the quarterly citywide celebration of the arts.

Visit www.jcfridays.com for their full event listings.

HCCC administrators, faculty and staff will gather to celebrate the students who have completed their coursework and will receive their diplomas as part of the HCCC Class of 2019. Invitations will be sent out to those who are completing their degree this semester.

What You Need To Know

- If you have earned more than 50 credits, you will be automatically applied for graduation.
- If you intend on walking across the stage at the May Commencement ceremony, distribution of tickets and regalia (caps & gowns) will take place in April 2020
- Ensure that you continue to check your HCCC email, as that is where important information regarding the Commencement ceremony in May will be sent.
- Information can also be found at myhudson.hccc.edu/graduation.
