Hillary and Clinton

John Golden Theatre, New York, NY
8 p.m.
Two-time Tony Award and three-time Emmy winner Laurie Metcalf, and two-time Tony Award and six-time Emmy winner John Lithgow return to Broadway to star in Hillary and Clinton, a new play by Tony nominee Lucas Hnath (A Doll's House, Part 2). Directed by two-time Tony Award winner Joe Mantello. Behind closed doors in the state of New Hampshire during the early days of 2008, a former First Lady named Hillary is in a desperate bid to save her troubled campaign for President of the United States. Her husband, Bill, sees things one way; her campaign manager, Mark, sees things another. If any of this sounds familiar, don't be fooled; in a universe of infinite possibilities, anything can happen. Hillary and Clinton examines the politics of marriage, gender roles, and the limitations of experience in this profound and timely look at an American dynasty in crisis.

Teacher as Artist: Miguel Cardenas Reception

4 p.m. - 7 p.m.
Journal Square Campus, Gabert Library, Dineen Hull Gallery Atrium, 6th Floor
Jersey City-born pop artist Miguel Cardenas worked as an architect for a number of years. He received a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Pratt Institute and a master's degree in Advanced Architectural Design and Theory from Columbia University. He currently practices as a freelance architectural designer and works full-time with autistic students at Dickinson High School's Special Education Department. Cardenas' digital collages attempt to blur the line between art and design by creating a narrative of associations. Architectonic spatial concepts are applied by overlaying juxtaposing appropriated images and text taken from art history, social history, as well as pop culture. His work attempts to inhabit the ambiguous, interstitial space or grey zone that exists between binary oppositions – where things are not "either/or," but "both/ and."

FRIDAY, APRIL 26 4th Annual HCCC Pride Conference

9 a.m. - 2 p.m.
Join us for our annual 4th Annual PRIDE Conference, consisting of educational workshops and networking opportunities. Free to students, staff, and faculty. Sign up to participate at www.hccc.edu/tickets starting March 4.

Hillary and Clinton

John Golden Theatre, New York, NY

8 p.m.

Two-time Tony Award and three-time Emmy winner Laurie Metcalf, and two-time Tony Award and six-time Emmy winner John Lithgow return to Broadway to star in Hillary and Clinton, a new play by Tony nominee Lucas Hnath (A Doll's House, Part 2). Directed by two-time Tony Award winner Joe Mantello. Behind closed doors in the state of New Hampshire during the early days of 2008, a former First Lady named Hillary is in a desperate bid to save her troubled campaign for President of the United States. Her husband, Bill, sees things one way; her campaign manager, Mark, sees things another. If any of this sounds familiar, don't be fooled; in a universe of infinite possibilities, anything can happen. Hillary and Clinton examines the politics of marriage, gender roles, and the limitations of experience in this profound and timely look at an American dynasty in crisis.

And Still I Rise, Otto Neals

The HCCC Department of Cultural presents Notes and Tones a themed compilation of prints created by nationally recognized artists who have worked over the years with the Robert Blackburn Printmaking Workshop in Manhattan. Notes and Tones is in partnership with the Robert Blackburn Printmaking Workshop, a program of the Elizabeth Foundation for the Arts. Today, this community printshop is dedicated to continuing the legacy of its founder and Master Printer Robert Blackburn. Blackburn, a jazz aficionado, held similar ideologies to the local Jazz communities of the late 1960s. This indie spirit glistens through the jazz-inspired works that will be on view. The exhibition will also include a closer look at community partner WBGO, a celebrated national radio station based out of Newark, NJ. WBGO is renowned for presenting jazz of the highest quality.

The exhibition coincides with our annual Georgia Brooks Celebration. Highlights include a live hot jazz performance by The Ladybugs during the opening reception on February 5, which will be recorded by WBGO and broadcast on air, and Jersey City masking tape artist Kayt Hester will create a live mural installation in the Dineen Hull Atrium. The closing reception will take place on March 1, which is also JC Fridays, and will feature a jazz performance from Thinking In Full Color Color alumna and songstress Audrey Martells accompanied by Belden Bullock on bass.

And Still I Rise, which depicts a stunning portrait of Maya Angelou by Otto Neals, was used as the Spring Brochure cover image. DOCA is thrilled that the original artwork will be on view in the exhibition. Artists in the exhibition include Benny Andrews, Romare Bearden, Camille Billops, Willie Birch, Robert Blackburn, Betty Blayton, Kay Brown, Vivian Browne, Mel Edwards, Maren Hassinger, Robin Holder, Dindga McCannon, Otto Neals, Mavis Pusey, Vernal Reuben, Betye Saar, Vincent Smith, Mildred Thompson, Michael Kelly Williams among others.

Urban Crossroads: Reimagining Jersey City's Abandoned Infrastructure

March 12 – April 18
Curated by Rahid Cornejo and
Sean Gallagher

Photo from 2018 Urban Crossroads Exhibition at HCCC

March 12: Opening Reception, 4-7 p.m.
April 18: Closing Reception &
Panel Discussion, 4-7 p.m.

A collaborative exhibition which presents research from New Jersey Institute of Technology's College of Architecture and Design, Rutgers University's Master of Landscape Architecture, the Jersey City Arts Council's Architecture and Design Committee, and the newly formed nonprofit Bergen Arches.

This exhibition of student work showcases the potential for Jersey City to re-imagine its infrastructural past as an un-interrupted public and ecological corridor within the heart of its urban fabric. Come see how a floating natural forest and a forgotten ravine could link together to become a public asset that rivals New York City's Highline and Lowline and connects Jersey City to the United States East Coast Greenway.

HCCC Spring Student Art Exhibition

May 3 – 17
Curated by Laurie Riccadonna and
Jeremiah Teipen

May 3: Opening Reception, 4-7 p.m.
May 17: Closing & Student Presentations,
9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

The HCCC Art Department offers a wide variety of classes in computer and fine arts taught by professional artists living in the New York metropolitan area. HCCC celebrates the artistic talents of our community with a bi-annual student exhibition in the Dineen Hull Gallery.
