Anne Frank Exhibit: A Private Photo Album

Presented by The Advisory Council on Diversity, Equity & Inclusion in partnership with the Anne Frank Center
Dineen Hull Gallery
Gabert Library, 6th Floor
Opening Reception:
March 19, 4:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

As an amateur photographer, Otto Frank had a single theme: his daughters, Anne and Margot. Nothing we see in Mr. Frank's photos reveal the horrors the family will soon endure. The exhibition consists of over fifty reproduced photographs, many of which are seldom on public display. Additionally, we will feature the award-winning documentary film, The Short Life of Anne Frank, and a special performance of Letters from Anne to Martin by the Anne Frank Center.

To Kill a Mockingbird

7:00 p.m., Shubert Theatre

Published in 1960, To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee captures the emotional tale of an African American man put on trial in small-town Alabama and the lawyer fighting to prove his innocence.

This play features one of literature's towering symbols of integrity and righteousness in the character of Atticus Finch, performed by Ed Harris, based on Lee's own father. The character of Scout, based on Lee herself, has come to define youthful innocence—and its inevitable loss—for generations after generation of readers around the world.

West Side Story

7:00 p.m., Broadway Theatre

When four theatrical giants — Jerome Robbins, Leonard Bernstein, Arthur Laurents and Stephen Sondheim — created West Side Story, it was immediately hailed as an "indisputable, boundary-busting masterpiece" (The New York Times) that "explodes every imaginable idea of what a musical can be" (New York Magazine). Now, three of the most daring theater-makers of our time — director Ivo van Hove (A View From the Bridge and The Crucible), choreographer Anne Teresa de Keersmaeker, and designer and frequent Van Hove collaborator Jan Versweyveld — offer a radical, thrilling new interpretation of this iconic work, with extraordinary dancing, breathtaking vision, and 33 young, brilliantly gifted performers all making their Broadway debuts. Don't miss this opportunity to see a landmark in musical theater history as if for the very first time.

FEBRUARY

Thursday, February 27:

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Book Club: Persepolis by Marjane Satrapi (L)

For the first NHC Library book club of the semester, we will be discussing the graphic memoir The Complete Persepolis by Marjane Satrapi. Come into the North Hudson Campus Library ahead of time to get a copy of the book to read (supplies are limited) and come prepared to talk – we want to hear your thoughts! You might want to make some time to come in on March 6, too, because we will also be showing the movie adaptation of Persepolis! (Note: You don't have to come to both events to enjoy one of them, but we do encourage it.)

MARCH

Wednesday, March 4:

12:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Graphic Novel "Buffet" with Sarah (MR)

Open to anyone who wants to learn more about graphic novels and comics, this graphic novel "buffet" will be a guided exploration through what the medium has to offer. Go beyond what you think graphic novels and comics are to see what they really can be. A wide variety of graphic novels and comics will be highlighted.

Friday, March 6: 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Movie: Persepolis (MR)

North Hudson Campus Library will be showing the award-winning animated film Persepolis, an adaptation of the graphic memoir of the same name. The movie and the book it is based on follow the story of a young girl growing up in Iran during a time of revolution. Consider joining us a week before for our book club, too, where we will be discussing the graphic memoir!

Thursday March 12: 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Addressing the Opioid Epidemic: A Primer on Opioid Addiction, Overdose Management, and Medication-Assisted Treatment.

Presented by Rutgers Interdisciplinary Opioid Trainers (co-sponsored by Human Resources and NHC Student Life & Leadership) (MR) Join us at North Hudson Campus for an informative session with RIOT, the Rutgers Interdisciplinary Opioid Trainers, as they share a primer on opioid addiction, Opioid Use Disorder, overdose management, and medication-assisted treatment.

Thursday, April 2: 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Virtual Reality Gaming with Seto (SL)

Try out virtual reality gaming! If you have never used VR technology before, this is the chance to do so! Those who have are welcome to come play too.

Tuesday, April 14: 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Pop-Up Research FAQs with NHC Librarians (SL)

Got research questions? Need help finding sources for a paper? Don't know where to go for help? Well, we are bringing the Library to you! A librarian will be in the Student Lounge with a laptop, helpful resources, and of course, snacks! No matter where you are in your research process, we can help.

Wednesday, April 15: 12:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Book Club: The Moment of Lift by Melinda Gates (L)

The NHC Book Club will be reading The Moment of Lift by Melinda Gates. On April 15 we will meet for a discussion about the book and related topics. Come into the North Hudson Campus Library ahead of time to get a copy of the book to read (supplies are limited) and come prepared to talk – we want to hear your thoughts!

Tuesday, April 21: TBD

Poetry Month Read-in/Read-aloud (MR)

This Poetry Month celebration is all about sharing poetry out loud; no matter the style, the language, the writer, the reader, all poetry is welcome. Poetry resources will be available beforehand and at the event to help you find a poem to read aloud. Come drop by with an open mind, listen to poetry read in the many voices of our college community, and find a poem that speaks to you. Time to be announced.

Thursday, April 23: 11:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Pop-Up Research FAQs with NHC Librarians (SL)

Round 2! Come get help on your research assignments, whether you came to the first pop-up Library session or not. As with the first session, a librarian will be on hand to help. (Yes, snacks will be too!)

Thursday, April 30: 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Jewelry Making with Sarah (SL)

Do you like jewelry, or know someone who does? How about making things yourself? Librarian Sarah likes both. Join her in the NHC Student Lounge to learn some jewelry-making tips and tricks, and make some jewelry to take home with you! We will provide the supplies; you just need to show up!
